FROM THE DESK OF YOUTH AND FAMILY MINISTRY DIRECTOR

Immanuel Family, I want to share something that I am very excited about that will benefit families at Immanuel, but also throughout our district and beyond. I was able to go through the training described in the excerpt below from "The VOICE", our LCMS MO District newsletter. I will be one of the certified trainer-coaches mentioned and pictured below. You will be hearing more about this in the months ahead, so I thought I would share the overall goal. Please pray for all families to know Jesus and pass down their faith to the next generation. I also ask for your prayers as I continue this training. If you plan to attend the E2 Conference on March 5th, Angie Brenner (DCE from Trinity) and I will be presenting more on this. All are welcome! Thank you! - Mandy McDonald

"Tell the Next Generation" is all about passing on our faith to the next generation as taught within the family unit. It's based on Psalm 78: 6-7, "that the next generation might know them, the children yet unborn, and arise and tell them to their children, so that they should set their hope in God and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments". But this isn't a new church program, instead it's a refocusing and a shift from relying solely on the church to train youth, to have parents and family play an active role in passing on the faith. Rev. Steven Andrews, Associate Pastor at Saint Matthew Lutheran Church in Lee's Summit notes, "For a long time, we've been trying to pass on the faith to the next generation in a way other than God designed it...and it's failing miserably. This initiative is seeking to return to God's design, and that's always a good thing." From January 4-7, 2022 church workers from across Missouri gathered for the "Tell the Next Generation" coaches' training at Heit's Point in Lutheran Camp in Lincoln. Training and discussion was led by Ben Freudenburg, who serves as Executive Director for Concordia Center for the Family. Attendees started the process of becoming certified as trainer-coaches by Concordia Center for the Family. From there, the District will partner with churches to help them grow their ministries. "Tell the Next Generation" also serves as the theme for the upcoming District Convention, held June 12-14, 2022.

A food donation list is located in the Entry Way or you can contact Dawn Matthews, Mandy McDonald or a committee member listed below to see what is needed.

4) Donate door & raffle prizes – These items can be anything! They do not have to be scrapbooking or crafting related. (Examples of items for the raffle are gift baskets of lotions, body sprays, etc. or possibly a kitchen basket which might include hand towels, a cookbook, a coffee mug & flavored coffee/tea mixes; any type of storage bag or tote, gift certificates of any kind…be creative!)

5) Spread the word – Hang some flyers in your office or place of business. Flyers are located in the Entry Way and the school office.

If you're not a scrapbooker, don't worry! Bring something else to work on. We've had people working on quilts, crafts, crocheting, needle point, computer projects that just don't seem to get done at home, even balancing the checkbook….a little bit of everything! It's a great way to concentrate on what you're working on, enjoy GREAT fellowship with some pretty wonderful people and of course help raise money for our youth group at the same time.
