FROM THE DESK OF YOUTH AND FAMILY MINISTRY

Fix these words of mine in your hearts and minds (Deuteronomy 11:8) and teach them to your children, talking about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up...(Deuteronomy 11:19)

Fall is such a beautiful time to be out and about with your family. I love that we can teach our children about the love of God as we "walk along the road". That gave me an idea...

With your children or grandchildren, I challenge you to take a walk and admire the beauty of God's autumn trees. Here are some discussion starters:

- Discuss the seasons and how they change. Remind them that though the world may change around us, Jesus is the same yesterday, today, and forever.
- Admire the different colors, shapes, and sizes of the leaves. Make a print of some leaves and discover the individual beauty of each one. How are people like these leaves?
- Look at John 15 and discuss how Jesus is the Vine, and we are the branches.
- Different trees produce different fruit. We are blessed to be fruity too through the work of the Spirit. Read Galatians 5:22-23 to review the list of the Fruit of the Spirit.

There are so many opportunities to share the Truths of God's Word in each season. Enjoy this season of your life as you FALLow His command to tell the next generation.

In Him,
Mandy McDonald

PREPARING FOR CHURCH THIS SUNDAY

Simul Justus et Peccator is the latin phrase for one of the great paradoxes of our faith. Lutheran theology is rich in paradox and this is one of our favorites. We are simultaneously both Saint (Justified) and Sinner. We are at the same time both justified by grace through faith and still remain a sinner by virtue of our nature. While God has redeemed us on the cross, given us the hope of heaven through His resurrection from the dead, and has brought us into His family through baptism, we constantly are fighting an internal 'civil war' between our sinful desires pitted against living according to God's Law. The leper who returns to give Jesus thanks and praise must become our response as well. Although cured from his leprosy, this man turns back to the ONE who has given him faith. We also should give thanks and praise to Jesus who has called us out of darkness into His marvelous light so that we may look only to Him in our paradoxical state of Simul Justus et Peccator.

TURKEY DINNER INFO

Our Turkey and Sausage Dinner is approaching quickly! We are so excited to have this event back in person. Here are just a few reminders:

Guest dinner tickets are available in the foyer.

Please use the link below to sign-up to either:
1) "purchase and bring in" or
2) "donate funds toward" a food item

Sign up sheets are also in the church entryway. Please have your donations brought in by Wednesday, October 21st.

THANK YOU in advance!! Those donations go a LONG way toward boosting the final profit of our meals!

Please find the item, type in your name, the amount you intend to donate and then choose whether you are bringing the item or giving $.

OCTOBER IS PASTOR APPRECIATION MONTH

What a blessing Vicar Resner is as a faithful shepherd of our flock and a man of God whose life serves and honors Our Lord. His devotion to this calling is deeply respected and should be held in high regard. Let's show him how truly grateful and blessed we feel to have him as our Vicar with a note of thanks. There will be a basket in the entry throughout the month of October for you to give him a card of Thanks.

PICTURE DAY

Picture Day is Thursday, October 13. We will also be doing the school wide panoramic picture at this time. Order before Picture Day to receive free shipping to the school. Order online at https://inter-state.com/FlyerEntry/71949CF. Shipping and handling charges may apply to orders placed after Picture Day. Flyers were sent home with your child this week.

IS YOUR CHILD INTERESTED IN PARTICIPATING IN BASKETBALL OR ARCHERY?

If your child would like to participate in basketball (gr. 5-8) or archery (gr. 4-8), please contact Heather Jobe at 291-7001.

KIDS PLAYING BELLS & SINGING IN CHURCH

K-2 will be playing bells on October 9. Please meet in founder's hall at 9:20. Also during the service K-4 will be singing.

BLUEJAY SPIRIT WEAR

Are you instantly regretting not buying a hoodie or long sleeve shirt now that the weather is finally cooling off 🍂🍁 or did you forget to buy one the first round? You are in luck! 🍀 A few people mentioned they would like to buy a few more items so we opened the spirit wear store back up.

Orders are due October 14th.

Keep in mind

1)They have to have 12 orders of each logo for them to print again (except for the embroidered pieces (round logo)

2) PTL is not benefiting from the spirit wear store (except to get some cool gear).
