FROM THE DESK OF MR. KOPP

We are in need of your help. We are looking to add to our substitute teacher list and looking for a 2-day a week cook. These positions might be something you are interested in or let a friend know that it is available.

We are looking for people who would be interested in being a substitute teacher for our Preschool-8th grade. Duties would involve managing a classroom and teaching lessons to students. Lesson plans and directions will be provided. The love to work with children and patience is the number one job requirement. You can specify which grade range you would like to sub for. If you are interested in getting on our list please contact the school office to set up a time to meet with Mr. Kopp.

We are also looking for a part time cook to prepare lunches for the preschool and school. The position is two 6 hour days a week. You would be responsible for preparing, cooking, and serving lunches for the students. There is someone who helps serve and cleans lunch trays. Limited experience is needed. You don't have to be a chef or head cook, just want to cook. Menus will be planned around your abilities.

If you are interested in either of these positions please contact Mr. Kopp in the school office or email him at principal@midmoimmanuel.com. As always, if you have any questions, concerns, or just want to talk, my door is always open.

PREPARING FOR CHURCH THIS SUNDAY

Matthew 18 is often cited as a guideline for Church Discipline. But this chapter is loaded with loving care for each other: 1) This chapter starts with children being the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven, 2) The chapter continues with a stern warning of causing a little one to stumble, 3) And then, we get a warning about ourselves, 4) Followed by a lesson about leaving the ninety-nine to search for the one that has gone astray, and finally, 5) We get a lesson on how to deal with offenses between Christians. (More to come next week.)

When put into its proper context, all of this section is about caring for one another. Jesus uses the example of a child to illustrate for us that the greatest in the kingdom is the one who is the most dependent; dependent upon God to be sure, but as He teaches, we see that weaker Christians are also dependent upon others to restore them back into the fold.

DINE-IN TURKEY DINNER

We are overjoyed to announce that Immanuel Honey Creek will be hosting a DINE-IN turkey dinner again this year. We will be connecting in fellowship with the community as well as with each other. We are blessed with a congregation FULL of members eager to serve! We will Serve God as we serve others. THANK YOU!!! If you have not signed up yet, we still have some spots open.

PART TIME COOK POSITION AVAILABLE

We are looking for a part time cook to prepare lunches for the preschool and school. The position is two 6 hour days a week. You would be responsible for preparing, cooking, and serving lunches for the students. There is someone who helps serve and cleans lunch trays. Limited experience is needed. You don't have to be a chef or head cook, just want to cook. Menus will be planned around your abilities. If interested, please contact the school office at 573-496-3766 or email Mr. Kopp at principal@midmoimmanuel.com.

POPCORN FUNDRAISER

The students sold 852 bags of popcorn! Way to go! Thank you for your continued support.

EMPTY PAPER TOWEL TUBES

FELLOWSHIP MEAL/VOTERS MEETING DATE CHANGE

Please mark your calendars. The September Fellowship Meal and Voters Meeting has been changed to Sunday, September 17th.

LUTHERANS OF COLE COUNTY - JEREMY AMICK

We would like to invite your congregation to join us at the Parish of St. John's Lutheran Church in Stringtown at 3 p.m. on Sunday, September 24, 2023. Local author and historian Jeremy Amick will share some of the history of Lutheran immigration to Cole County as documented in his upcoming book "Lutherans of Cole County, Missouri: A History." The St. John's Ladies' Aid will be providing refreshments at this event. Additionally, your congregation is featured in this presentation.

Large groups of German immigrants began arriving in Cole County in the 1830s. By 1843, thirty-seven of them had banded together to establish the first Lutheran church in the county: Zion Church. The following year, the second Lutheran church was founded near Taos, while the pastors at Zion helped establish a third congregation in Lohman in the 1850s.

Doctrinal disputes inspired members to leave the church in Lohman and establish a new Lutheran congregation in Stringtown after the Civil War. Over the generations, Zion—the “Mother Church”—disbanded, but other Lutheran congregations developed in Centertown, Honey Creek, Russellville, Jefferson City and near Brazito.

Thank You, Jeremy P Amick

Mom's Bible Study

If you are looking for a sweet group to make connections with while your child(ren) are in Sunday School each week, this is a perfect opportunity. We connect and share on various issues of motherhood, but more importantly we search the Scripture for guidance on how to raise the children that God has so graciously given us! Our Bible study digs deep into the lives of mothers in the Bible who felt many of the same insecurities, fears, and vulnerabilities that we do. But just like them, we have a Heavenly Father who loves us and promises to guide us with His Word.

Join us each week (and feel free to invite your family and friends) starting Sunday, September 17th, from 8:15-9:15 am in the youth room. If your children are not yet of Sunday School age, we will have Sr. High Youth babysitters available in the preschool room to help babysit.

Starting September 17

Women's Bible Study

We'd love for you to join us on Wednesday evenings for Women's Bible Study. We'll meet to encourage one another and study God's Word together in the youth room from 6:30-8:00pm, and unpack the promises found in Psalm 46 that are fulfilled in Christ.

When our Lord says, "Be still, and know that I am God," (Psalm 46:10), what does He mean? God's Word promises that in whatever kind of storm we find ourselves in, Jesus always comes to us. He is our refuge and strength; our ever-present help in time of need.

While we will anchor ourselves in the Bible, we'll continue to use the book, Be Still and Know: A Study of Rest and Refuge by Deb Burma, as our guide, and study the narratives from the Gospels as Jesus meets various women who are experiencing their own storms.

Looking to the biblical and cultural contexts will allow us to better grasp the depth of Christ's care, purpose, and attention to our every need. In the midst of today's storms, may God reveal His refuge for us in Christ, the One who has overcome the world!

Children's Sunday School

It is time for Sunday School to begin, and we are looking forward to another great year! We have classes for kids of all ages. Sunday School classes have been around for a long time, but our goal remains the same. Our goal is to share God's Word, so the children can hear both Law and Gospel, and come together to connect and grow in their faith.

The first day for Sunday School classes is Sunday, September 17th. Classes will last from 8:15-9:15 am. We have some wonderful teachers who have agreed to teach this year. The following are the classroom and teacher assignments. We will meet in the kindergarten room to sing a couple of songs each Sunday before dismissing into classrooms. Preschool - Kindergarten students (with teacher, Amy Kopp) will stay in the kindergarten room, 1st-2nd grade students (with teacher, Jenna Dick) will meet in 1st-2nd grade classroom, 3rd-5th grade students (with teachers, Sonja and Lucas Bechel) will meet in 3rd-4th grade classroom, and youth group aged kids, both Jr. and Sr. High (with various teachers) will meet in the 5th-6th grade classroom.

Parents are welcome to attend the Adult Bible Study (commons) or the Mom's Bible Study (youth room) while kids are in Sunday School. Our Mom's Bible Study group will resume meeting on Sunday, September 17th. We also have several youth group girls who have agreed to babysit those too young for Sunday School in the preschool classroom.

I have given them the glory that you gave me, that they may be one as we are one— I in them and you in me—so that they may be brought to complete unity. September 2023

Stewardship in the First Commandment

The greatest gift that Martin Luther gave to us was his Small Catechism. The word “enchiridion” is part of the original title of this work. This is the Greek word for “handbook.” The Small Catechism is a handbook of the Bible. All the basic knowledge that a Christian needs to understand the faith and live a godly life has been taken from the Bible and distilled into this beautiful little book of Christian piety.

Luther starts with the Ten Commandments.

The First Commandment:

You shall have no other gods.

What does this mean? We should fear, love, and trust in God above all things. (SC I)

We have a God above us. He is the Lord God and we are not. He is Almighty and in control. He is righteous and good. And therefore, we should fear Him.

This God is also our heavenly Father. He wants us to be saved. He does not want us to suffer His just wrath. He has provided salvation for us in His Son, Jesus Christ. And therefore, we should love Him.

Our heavenly Father will never leave us nor forsake us. He has promised as much — and the Bible shows us that He always keeps His promises. So, we should trust Him.

In the Large Catechism, Luther explains how money and possessions form one of the greatest temptations against the First Commandment:

This I must unfold somewhat more plainly, that it may be understood and perceived by ordinary examples of the contrary. Many a one thinks that he has God and everything in abundance when he has money and possessions; he trusts in them and boasts of them with such firmness and assurance as to care for no one. Lo, such a man also has a god, Mammon by name, i.e., money and possessions, on which he sets all his heart, and which is also the most common idol on earth. He who has money and possessions feels secure, and is joyful and undismayed as though he were sitting in the midst of Paradise. On the other hand, he who has none doubts and is despondent, as though he knew of no God. For very few are to be found who are of good cheer, and who neither mourn nor complain if they have not Mammon. This [care and desire for money] sticks and clings to our nature, even to the grave. (LC I 5–9)

These words of Dr. Luther should call us to repentance; sometimes, we live and act like we don't have a Father in heaven. We seek our comfort and peace outside of His gracious promises. But we do have a Father in heaven. He does love us. All His promises are true. And the Lord will surely provide. If that is our belief, then our outward lives will reflect our belief in our acts of generosity and mercy. We will see money and possessions not as gods but rather as tools for doing God's work.

The background of the poster is decorated with various watercolor illustrations of autumn-themed elements. These include several types of leaves in shades of orange, red, and yellow, some with detailed vein patterns. There are also clusters of small berries, some red and some purple, and a few mushrooms with orange caps and white stems. The illustrations are scattered around the central text, creating a festive and seasonal atmosphere.
